SEC. HERTER LITTLE MORE OPTIMISTIC

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. officials saw a glimmer of hope today that renewed Geneva talks will at last start removing the Berlin crisis as an explosive threat to world peace.

Christian A. Herter pointed to "some possibility" of reaching agreement with the Soviets Thursday in his first formal news conference as Secretary of State.

Herter said he has never been optimistic about successful negotiations with the Reds. But he pointed to a couple of unanswered questions in recent Soviet statements on the German question.

If the Soviets come up with the right answers from the foreign ministers resume their conference Monday, he indicated, then there will be progress instead of the deadlock that featured the first six weeks of the parley.

He said the questions are:

1. Whether Moscow is insisting that in case of a temporary agreement on West Berlin, the Allies forfeit their rights to the Communist-encircled city when the agreement lapses;

2. Whether Moscow is demanding a time limit on such an agreement.

Britain, France and the United States have denounced Soviet talk of deadlines as ultimatums or threats under which they could not negotiate. And they say West Berlin must remain free. The Communists are calling for an end to the Allies' postwar occupation of the city.

Herter flies to Geneva Saturday for the conference reopening after a three week recess. He told newsmen jokingly his feeling about returning to the parley "might be unprintable" — and he hopes not to stay beyond three weeks this time.

A final round of advice on how to deal with the Soviets was due today with the arrival in Washington (Turn to Page Eight)

Soaring Traffic Deaths Alarm Safety Council

CHICAGO (AP) — The National Safety Council says it is alarmed at what it called the nation's soaring traffic death toll. Unless the number of deaths are reduced sharply, the council says, there will be 39,800 traffic deaths this year. This is 2,800 more than in 1958.

Howard Pyle, president of the council, told a news conference Thursday that traffic deaths in the first five months are 5 per cent higher than in the same period last year.

"We are alarmed," he said. "If the public could also be alarmed and inspire adequate protective measures, lives could be saved."

The council suggested inauguration of these safety measures at once:

Step-up law enforcement in areas where it is now; inspect high accident locations to remove physical hazards; analyze court penalties to see if they are deterring violations; suspend drivers licenses of accident prone and violation repeat; more rigid enforcement of drunk driving laws; and step up public education for safe driving and safe walking.

Powder Puff Derby Winner Has Ideas About Housework

SPORANE, Wash. (AP) — "Women would probably feel a lot more relaxed if they got out of the kitchen once in awhile and up into the air."

That's the opinion of Aileen Saunders, pretty pilot winner of the 1959 Powder Puff Derby — the transcontinental air race for women.

"Flying gets to be second nature after awhile, like sweeping the floors or pinning baby's diaper," remarked the three-time derby veteran. "But even so it's a big thrill to be up there, always invigorating."

"I guess winning this race makes me about the happiest woman in the world. I'm just thrilled to death."

Hoffa Is Planning Nationwide Pact For Truck Drivers

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Teamsters under President James R. Hoffa plan a meeting in Chicago next summer to work on a single nationwide agreement that would cover thousands of long distance truck drivers throughout the United States in 1961.

Long distance hauling is presently covered by three major teamster contracts which divide the giant union into three geographical areas. One covers the eastern states, another the central and southern states and the third almost all of the western states. Hoffa outlined his plans here before a western conference of Teamsters General Hauling Caucus Thursday before he flew to Washington for a date today with the Senate rackets probers.

Under present contracts, Hoffa said, Teamsters union members with valid contracts may be required to drive trucks into areas where other union members are on strike.

With a single master agreement in effect for the entire nation, Hoffa said, no union member would have to cross another's picket line.

Hoffa explained that all contracts covering long distance hauling in the continental 48 states expire within a 90-day period during the summer of 1961.

Erie-Ontario Canal Is Endorsed by Authority

ERIE, Pa. (AP) — The Council of Lake Erie Ports was told Thursday the Niagara Frontier Port Authority at Buffalo, N.Y., already has endorsed plans for a survey to build a canal between Lake Erie and Lake Ontario.

James B. Kane of Buffalo told 100 council members attending a two-day meeting that a canal would solve the bottleneck that keeps cropping up in the Welland Canal now being used by ocean vessels on the St. Lawrence Seaway.

Kane said construction costs could be held down by using the old Erie Canal route.

Robert C. Downie, president of the Allegheny Pittsburgh Port Authority, told the council that a survey now is being made to determine whether it would be profitable for Pittsburgh firms to use the St. Lawrence Seaway for overseas shipments.

FARM SAFETY WEEK
HARRISBURG (AP) — The Pennsylvania Rural Safety Council Thursday fixed the week of July 12-19 for the 15th annual observance of Farm Safety Week in the state.

FUND FOR ST. BARNABAS
SHARON, Pa. (AP) — Miss Grace Perkins, who died recently at the age of 90, has willed $25,000 to the Erie Diocese of the Episcopal Church and $5,000 to the Barnabas Home near Erie.

WINNFIELD, La. (AP) — Louisiana Gov. Earl K. Long said today he will file suit Monday for damages in excess of two million dollars against Time, Inc., for what he claimed were "slanderous articles and pictures" in Time and Life magazines.

He said he expects his attorney, Joe Arthur Sims, to file the suits in 19th District Court in Baton Rouge. The announcement was telephoned to Mrs. Margaret Dixon, managing editor of the Baton Rouge Morning Advocate.

There was no comment on what material in the magazines Long referred to, but two of his legislative leaders — State Sen. B. B. Rayburn and State Rep. Jesse McMain — were upset Thursday night when they read this week's issue of Life Magazine.

They were particularly critical of a picture which showed the governor on the edge of a bed in a Covington, La., motel last week in bed clothes and without his false teeth.

In a further comment on his planned vacation in the West, the 53-year-old governor said he would leave his Winnfield farm for Shreveport, La., Saturday and then catch a plane for Fort Worth, Tex.

Long, continuing to ignore doctors' advice to remain quiet, drove to Winnfield from Baton Rouge Thursday night.

The trip of approximately 250 miles took about 4½ hours. Several state police cars escorted him into town early today. Long went immediately to bed in his tin-roofed farm house.

The governor stopped en route at a restaurant in Krotz Springs owned by State Rep. Frank Diesel.

Ken Lane, news director of radio station WLCS in Baton Rouge, observed Long at Diesel's restaurant but wasn't allowed to question him.

Lane said the governor appeared in good spirits and, contrary to some reports, didn't look like a dying man. Long stayed in the car during his 45-minute stopover at Krotz Springs. He chatted with Diesel, State Sen. B. B. Rayburn of Bogalusa and J. J. Artell, president of the Red River and Atchafalaya Levee District.

Long laughed and joked quite a bit, Lane said.

Rayburn said he expected the governor to take off today on the tour that may reach into Mexico and Canada.

Long's aides did not reveal the exact itinerary. There were indications he would drive to Shreveport today and leave from there for Austin or Fort Worth, Tex. The tour is expected to include Tucson or Phoenix, Ariz., Los Angeles, San Francisco, Death Valley, Portland, Seattle, Canada, the Dakotas and back home by way of St. Louis.

Long probably will make most of the trip by air.

The governor still apparently plans to call a special legislative session when he returns. Either Aug. 4 or 10 is considered the likely date for the opening of the session.

Meanwhile, the public has no (Turn to Page Eight)

Governor Will Dine With Kozlov Tonight

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Gov. David L. Lawrence, who is having dinner with Soviet Deputy Premier Frol Kozlov tonight, says he would like to have time to show the touring Russian official how capitalism works in Pennsylvania.

"In his present visit, Mr. Kozlov must see some of the advantages of the Democratic system," Lawrence said last night. "He is not blind. He must note also the great production capacity of this nation, for he will have visited Detroit and Pittsburgh."

"I think it will be a shock to Mr. Kozlov — one which he might never get over," the governor said in a speech before the 40th annual convention of Pennsylvania Veterans of Foreign Wars.

ALLIES ARE WORKING ON NEW OFFER

GENEVA (AP) — The Western Allies are reported working up a new proposal to put the Berlin dispute on ice for several years and give the Soviet Union a summit conference in the fall.

The foreign ministers of the United States, Britain and France are expected to put the proposal to Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko soon after the Big Four conference resumes here Monday.

As outlined here, the plan contains only one change in previous Western proposals. East and West Germany would be given equal representation on a subcommittee to take preliminary steps toward reunification of Germany.

Previously the West proposed a subcommittee of 25 West Germans and 10 from the Communist East, because West Germany's population is more than three times that of the East.

In return for this concession, Western officials think the Soviets might agree to freeze the situation in Central Europe, including Berlin. But they are considerably less than optimistic.

"It all depends on whether Premier Khrushchev wants any kind of settlement at all," said a highly placed Western official.

In addition to the freeze on the Berlin situation, the other key point in the plan is appointment (Turn to Page Eight)

Russian Deputy Premier Heading For Pittsburgh

CHICAGO (AP) — The barnstorming first deputy premier of the Soviet Union heads for Pittsburgh today and another look at American industry after a stop here occupied mostly by talk about corn and commerce.

In a last minute change of plans, Frol R. Kozlov, decided he wanted to see the current international trade fair here today.

The party planned to arrive in their chartered DC-10 plane at Pittsburgh, about 1 p.m. to be greeted by Frederic Weir, president of the City Council and representative of the University of Pittsburgh.

The rest of the original schedule for the Pittsburgh area has been canceled, to permit the chartered plane to take off Saturday night for New York. Kozlov plans to leave early Monday for Moscow in a Soviet jet transport.

1,000 Cons in Georgia Prison on Hunger Strike

REIDSVILLE, Ga. (AP) — With state patrolmen standing by, prison officials waited to see if 1,000 white convicts were in a mood to continue their hunger strike today.

The strike, in support of demands for better conditions, covered all three meals Thursday but authorities so far have made no move to force the convicts' hand.

"We have no rule that they have to eat," Corrections Director Jack Forrester said, but he and Warden R. P. Balkcom served notice that any violation of rules would meet swift punishment.

The hunger strike started at breakfast Thursday when 400 convicts refused to eat after posting a nine-point list of demands in their cell blocks.

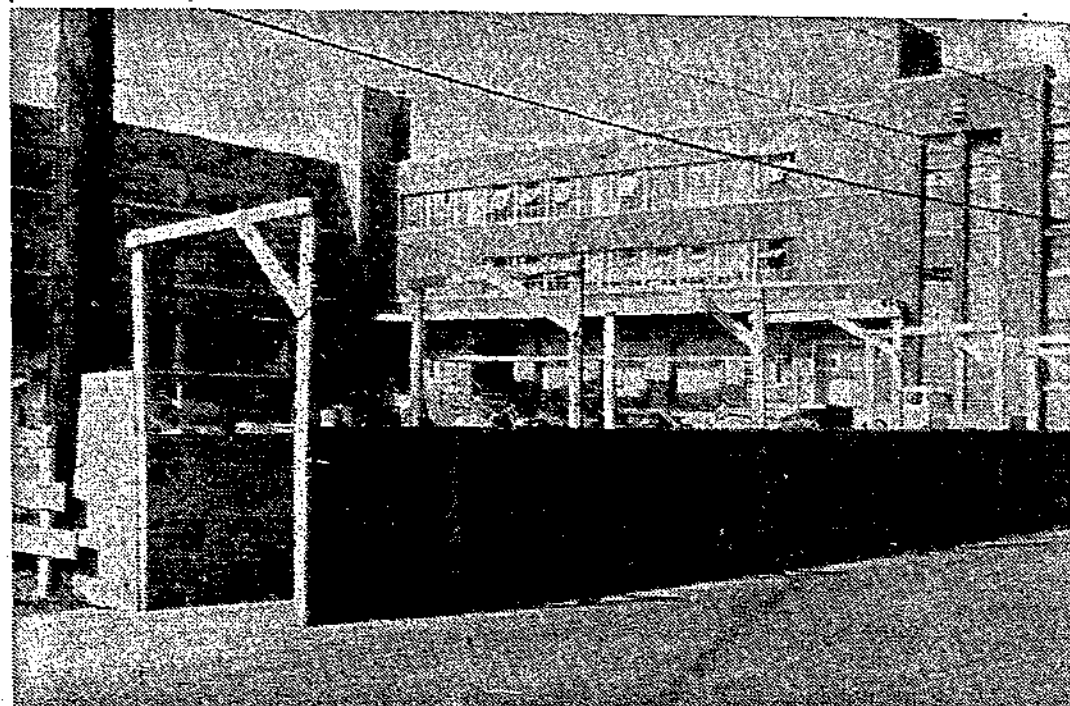

The list ranged from the minor demand for fried eggs, instead of boiled or scrambled, to less severe treatment for prisoners confined in isolation cells.

Jaycees Adopt Celebration As Project for Coming Year

Elephant Helps At Memorial Service

FORT PLAIN, N.Y. (AP) — Every year, when the circus came to town, George Duffy bought 1,500 tickets for the kids. He was not around Thursday, though, when the Mills Brothers circus arrived. He died a year ago. So they held a memorial service at his grave, and a wreath was laid there — by a circus elephant.

Tragic Story of Murder - Suicide Related in Note

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — "I've always wanted you ... I can't have you ... This is the best way out ... I shot her ... Now I am going to shoot myself."

Merritt H. Stiles Jr., 23, of Philadelphia, a student at the University of Pennsylvania, scribbled his feelings on an envelope and stuffed it inside his coat pocket. It was not addressed.

His body was found Thursday beside a bridge path in a wooded area near Wissahickon Creek in Fairmount Park. Next to it lay the body of Miss Jolyn Stone, 24, a graduate student at Penn.

Stiles was found pitched forward on his face, still clutching a .32-caliber revolver in one hand and a .38-caliber pistol in the other. He had shot himself in the mouth.

Miss Stone's body lay beside his. She had been shot three times in the head.

What actually happened police could not say for sure.

Miss Stone was divorced in 1958 after a year of marriage and Stiles was estranged from his wife.

Gas Bombs Are Used to Subdue Irate Miner

UNIONTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Four gas bombs were used to subdue a 53-year-old coal miner Thursday after he had held police at bay for more than an hour.

Police said John Gross of Fitz-Henry, 20 miles north of Uniontown, fired volleys after volleys at them from an apartment building where he had barricaded himself shortly after midnight.

South Huntingdon Twp. Police Al Toth said Gross began firing when he went to Gross' apartment to serve him with a disorderly conduct warrant.

DROWNING AT ERIE

ERIE, Pa. (AP) — Ted Baginski, 35, of Erie, fell into Lake Erie Thursday and drowned as he and a companion were testing a new 21-foot aluminum boat. Baginski was the father of three, with a fourth on the way.

The Jaycees adopted the 4th of July Celebration as a project for 1960 at their regular membership meeting last evening in the YMCA. A Jaycee spokesman said that "planning" for next year's program will get underway immediately.

A preliminary report on the outcome of this year's project was given by Gordon Drum, General Chairman of the 4th of July. He expressed himself as more than satisfied with the manner in which the program was executed and said that a profit to the Jaycees of approximately $400 is indicated. A final budget will be released as soon as available.

Drum strongly emphasized the point that the annual celebration is a community effort and would not be possible without the generous financial and material support received from retailers, industry and individuals. He said that this year over 250 industrial concerns, retail establishments and individuals who are not Jaycees contributed time, materials or money to insure the success of the 1959 celebration.

Other action taken by the Jaycees at their membership meeting included the appointment of Ron Platt as supervisory chairman of the forthcoming appearance of Hagen Bros. Circus. The circus will present matinee and evening performances on Thursday, July 16 at the Airport. Ticket Headquarters will be established at Tiny Town, Fla., said with tickets also being sold at the United Cigar Store and the B & E Smoke Shop. General admission and reserved seats are on sale. Giant Four-Stage Juno II Rocket Is Contemplated

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — The Army's versatile Jupiter missile, another successful 1,500-mile trip under its belt, now turns its attention to satellite launching.

A 60-foot intermediate range Jupiter roared aloft Thursday night and dumped a simulated warhead on a target area off the downrange island of Antigua.

Just a short distance from the latest launching, technicians are preparing a giant four-stage Juno II rocket for a satellite attempt expected the middle of this month. A Jupiter forms the first stage of the 76-foot missile.

Riding in the nose cone of the Juno II will be this nation's biggest and most complex scientific satellite to date. It is a 9½-pound vehicle designed to perform at least six experiments in space. Among them are a study of the high radiation belt surrounding the earth and several weather probes.

G. O. P. Leader Reports Progress On Tax Stalemate

By FRED B. WALTERS
HARRISBURG (AP) — Rep. Albert W. Johnson, House Republican leader, said today he hopes the Budget Conference Committee can reach some agreement by the weekend.

"We've got to come up with something for next week, for my caucus," Johnson said.

Johnson, leader of the four-man GOP delegation to the nine-member, top-level conference, reported some progress Thursday at discussions devoted entirely to a review of tax estimates.

Ryke then read the sign — "Watch your eyeglasses."

Gasoline Tax Increase Is Still Considered Possible

By B. L. LIVINGSTONE
WASHINGTON (AP) — A possible gasoline tax increase was one of several ways studied today to keep work going on the national superhighway network in the years ahead.

An increase somewhat less than the 1½ cents a gallon President Eisenhower proposed still was an important part of several compromise plans ready for consideration by the House Ways and Means Committee.

In advance of today's session, Chairman Wilbur D. Mills (D-Ark.) indicated no specific solution was imminent, although a number of alternatives were known to be under study.

Eisenhower proposed last January an increase to 4½ cents a gallon to avoid a threatened deficit in the special highway trust

MEASURE TO CONFERENCE COMMITTEE

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has approved a $1,400,000 appropriation for work on the controversial flood control dam at Kinzua, Pa.

Approval came Thursday as the Senate passed a $1,256,836 public works appropriation bill.

Pennsylvania's senators — Joseph Clark (D) and Hugh Scott (R) — said they had intended to introduce an amendment to provide an additional two million dollars for the project. But they abandoned the idea after conferring with Sen. Allen J. Ellender (D-La.), floor manager of the bill.

An aide to Scott said Ellender assured both Clark and Scott that the $1,400,000 will be in addition to a similar sum already appropriated for the dam.

For that reason, the aide said, the two Pennsylvanians decided not to push for an amendment for more money which might run into opposition and tie up the bill.

The bill now goes to a senate-house conference committee. The joint committee will iron out differences in the house and senate versions of the measure — including those involving Kinzua.

The House wants the $1,400,000 remaining from the two million dollars appropriated for Kinzua held up until settlement of litigation over the proposed dam and pending completion of a new independent engineering survey.

The Supreme Court recently removed the first of these restrictions. It declined to review a lower court rejection of the Seneca Indians' petition for an injunction to stop construction of the dam.

Last Wednesday, the Senate Appropriations Committee said it had confidence in the Army Engineers' choice of the Kinzua Dam site over an alternative — the Conewago Valley in New York.

Rackets Probers After Additional Facts on Hoffa

By G. MILTON KELLY
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate rackets probers seek more information today about James R. Hoffa's alleged threat that "it might not be healthy" for Negro truck drivers to haul freight into Detroit.

Hoffa, international president of the Teamsters Union, many times has denounced racial discrimination. He has declared his union would have none of it.

Hoffa originally had been scheduled to testify today, but the committee said it probably will be Monday before he gets back on the witness stand.

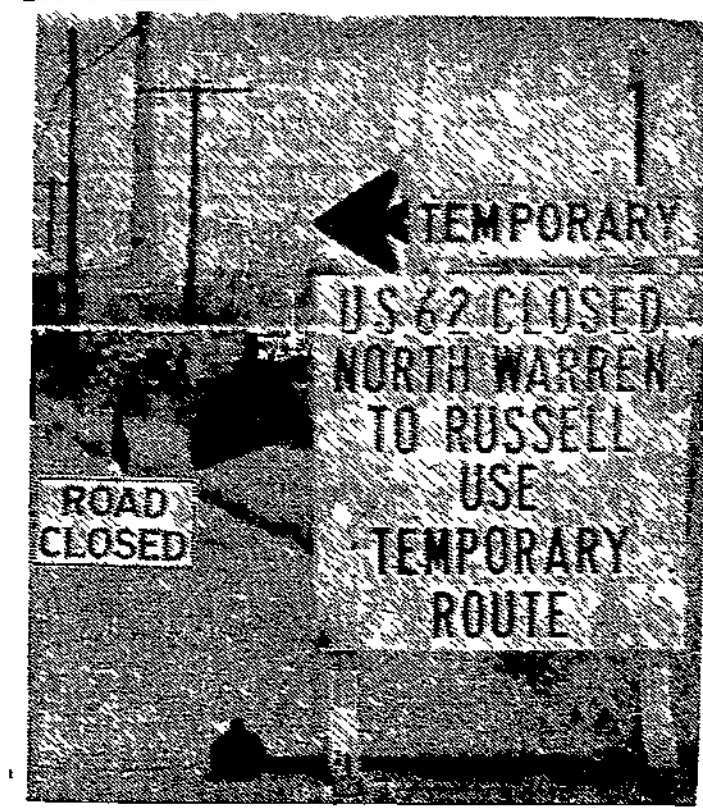

The committee said it was calling a Negro truck driver to tell of his experiences with a race-color line. Hoffa allegedly has drawn around the territory of his Detroit home union local 299.

Committee Counsel Robert F. Kennedy declined to name the witness in advance, but said the man now lives in California and was working out of Youngstown, Ohio, during the 1954-55 period in question.

fund from which federal grants are made. House Democrats balked at the plan, and the Senate rejected it as an amendment to another tax measure last month.

Without some assurance of added money, the highway fund will be too small to permit scheduled allocations to the states next month of amounts they can spend in the year starting next July 1. The allocations are made in advance to allow time for the necessary planning. A pay-as-you-go requirement in the highway law limits spending to the amount in the fund.

That requirement was suspended temporarily during last year's recession. Eisenhower has opposed any further suspension or other solution that would draw on regular treasury funds. But hints (Turn to Page Eight)

Youngsville Club Planning Family Outing and Picnic

YOUNGVILLE—A planned tureen picnic will be held on Island Park Tuesday evening for Kiwanis members and families, each one to bring table service; coffee, cream, sugar, rolls, meat and ice cream will be furnished. Gurney Ball, Howard Husted, Al Aiello, W. Jones and P. Taylor are the committee.

Following the regular dinner this week, members witnessed the Kiwanis-sponsored ball team win 10 to 3 over Sheffield Hotel team on the local school diamond.

At the business session, Rev. J. Norman Holder gave a book review of "The Robe" by Lloyd C. Douglas, the volume to be presented to the public library in memory of the late Rev. C. J. Franzen. Wyllis Johnson reported he attended an interclub meeting at Chicago last week while attending the barbershop chorus competition.

Milton Brown, commander of Halgren-Wilcox Post 658, reports a large number of local people in Warren on the fourth of July to root for the Legion-Firemen's Band and marching unit. Both units attend all parades without compensation, except for a little transportation and prize money, which is not sufficient even to maintain uniforms. So many are joining the marching unit it is difficult to finance and buy enough uniforms.

Both units will travel to Findley Lake this Saturday, and it is hoped many others will attend.

The biggest project for the group is the Legion Carnival July 20 to 25. The reduced price ticket sale ends July 18. Many merchants have subscribed to the advertising booklets. Those who have not been contacted and wish to subscribe are asked to call Lester Howe, who has extended himself to the utmost to show Youngsville one of the largest parades in its history on July 25, and everyone's support is needed. Any Legion or Auxiliary members who can help during this time are asked to call Carl Spear or Mrs. Hazel Gegerman.

Jean Baptiste Jules Bernadotte, born in 1763, the son of a humble French lawyer became king of two countries. In 1810, the people of Sweden, who had been seeking a crown prince to succeed their aged childless king, elected Bernadotte. In 1814, Denmark was forced to cede Norway to Sweden. Four years later the old king died and Bernadotte, as Charles XIV John, became ruler of Sweden and Norway.

Pinegrove Lions Hear Program By Phone Official

A lecture and demonstration of the theory and use of micro-waves was given before the Pinegrove Lions Club by H. A. Bryon, supervisor of Public Relations of the Bell Telephone Company of Pennsylvania, at their regular meeting Thursday.

Mr. Bryon used different pieces of electronic equipment during his talk to show how telephone messages and television programs are sent through the air, using the Bell System's cross country relay towers.

He demonstrated how these high frequency electro-magnetic waves can pass through some objects and are deflected by others and showed how this characteristic is used in radar.

By means of a large metal lens which focuses in a manner very similar to an ordinary glass lens, these electrical waves are concentrated into a narrow beam and "aimed" through the air from one relay tower to another. Over these beams, telephone conversations and television programs can be sent.

Mr. Bryon has had twenty-five years experience with his company, and at present spends considerable time interpreting Telephone Company operations to Western Pennsylvania audiences. He is a Penn State University graduate and resides in Pittsburgh.

Time To Spray Peach Trees

Bernie Wingert, above, Warren county farm agent, examines a peach tree which has been attacked by borer. He says now is the time for backyard peach tree growers to treat their trees for borer control. A good formula is six tablespoons of 50% DDT wettable powder in one gallon of water. Spray or paint tree trunks and soil at base of tree about July 10th and repeat again the first week of August.

Receives Fishing Trophy

Mrs. Lois F. Henry, of Warren, and Marathon Shores, Fla., recently received the Henry E. Mangel memorial trophy for catching the heaviest kingfish, at the annual awards banquet for the Metropolitan Miami Fishing Tournament, held at Marathon. The kingfish weighed 57 pounds, and presentation of the cup was made by Ted Barz, president of the Marathon Chamber of Commerce, to Mrs. Henry, who also received a citation for a 45 pound, four-ounce dolphin. The tournament, now in its 24th year, is the largest and oldest continuous fishing tourney. — Photo by Charles H. Anderson.

GLADE MANOR HOMES OPEN

The proverbial "red-carpet" will be unfurled Saturday and Sunday to local residents who desire to inspect contractor-built new homes at Glade Manor, according to advertisement appearing elsewhere in this paper today.

Acclaimed as the fastest growing suburban section of all new homes, the area is being developed jointly by Stahlman & Wolfe, local Realtors, and Lawrence E. Werner, local contractor.

Open for inspection between the hours of 1 p.m. and 5 p.m. both days the public will find five new homes, two of which have been sold, and three are being offered for sale.

Also available for inspection will include another new home in the stage of construction. The local Realtors stated today the second section of about 30 building lots is being opened, and the lots are available for outright purchase either as an investment or a location for a future new home.

Attractive features of Glade Manor as outlined by the Realtors include the nearness to town of the development, township approved streets, reasonable restrictions on the land to protect new home values, large lots which eliminates that "crowded feeling," and above all, congenial neighbors.

Directions to Glade Manor as outlined in the advertisement today: proceed east on Pennsylvania Ave. to Park St. at the Auto-body, turn left and follow to Glade Manor; or take Jackson Ave. and Jackson Ave. extension and turn right on first paved road past the Irvindale school.

The Realtors stated in event of heavy rains over the weekend, the showing will be moved up to the following weekend.

Boyle's Column

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — Will the atomic age create a two-headed human race?

Will the man of the future have six eyes, perhaps, and three legs and five arms?

These possibilities, admittedly remote, must be at least considered — in view of what happened to the Florida frogs?

You remember the strange case of the Florida frogs? Unusual frogs were discovered last month near Gainesville, Fla.

They had extra eyes and extra limbs. At first no one paid much attention to them, tolerantly figuring they were probably just a new breed of Yankee tourists, and all Yankee tourists look odd anyway.

But scientists, after studying them, theorized they were home-grown frogs whose ancestral genes had probably gone awry as the result of atomic fallout radiation.

Not all such mutations are necessarily bad for a species, of course. They might even improve the breed—make it better able to face the problems of a troubled world.

Well, it is likely that in time we might start observing a few dramatic mutations among human beings.

Would that be good or bad for the human race?

A person with three legs would have no particular advantage over a two-legged person, since civilized people don't use their legs much anyway. If pants had three legs in them the cost of suits would go up again. So would the price of a trio, instead of a pair, of shoes.

The advantage of a third eye, however, is obvious to anyone. Today it is just what both pedestrian and driver need to cope with traffic.

The advantages of extra arms are even more obvious. How often have you heard a housewife complain she has only two hands? With three, four, five or even six hands — could do many more things easily, and housework would become a breeze.

An equally heartening prospect is the possibility that in time atomic radiation might produce people with two heads. There is no telling how much finer a world would emerge if everybody was two-headed, and therefore twice as thoughtful.

But as soon as these mutations start appearing — if they do — you can be sure of one thing. A bunch of old fogies will run around screaming: "Stop the hydrogen bomb explosions! We don't want children with two heads, six eyes, four legs and five hands. We want our children to look like us!"

That's the trouble with human progress. There's always a bunch of fuzzy-minded, stubborn, stick-in-the-mud folks who want to keep things the way they are. They fight any change for the better.

NOT SO "GOODY"

Says Edward J. Byrne, editor and publisher of the Jamestown Sun:

To date, this corner hasn't been inspired especially to loud cries of "Goody, Goody!" by the speech making Congressman Goodell.

There's been a steady ring of familiarity in some of the congressman's pronouncements which seem to be traceable to prepared policy material of the Republican national committee, teeling off to prepare the voting minds for the next campaign.

But now Representative Goodell seems to be choosing up sides against the Kinzua dam project which would mean something like a 100 million dollar spending of considerable economic import to Jamestown, Warren and Bradford areas.

Representative Goodell urges "more of the army corps of engineers which has advocated the Kinzua project after considerable study, already covering several years in time. There comes a time, in this opinion, when we have to proceed from study to action if there are to be accomplishments for the public need.

Net effect of "more study," which always has the backing of obstructionists, sometimes has a way of delaying improvements and even pigeon-holing of certain plans indefinitely.

There was the much smaller matter of the army engineers plan for a spillway on Chautauqua Lake near Hartfield, which, after many pros and cons by professional and amateur engineers, has been unheard of recently and perhaps will not be dusted off for years or never.

If we're to be impressed by Congressman Goodell's position on the Kinzua project it seems fair enough to ask that he come up with some more valid arguments than the old cliché of "more study."

Encouraging news from motorists is the announcement that the Pennsylvania Public Utilities Commission, through the persistence of the Warren County Motor Club, has called a hearing on dangerous Pennsylvania Railroad Crossings at Sugar Run and Kinzua. The session will be held next Tuesday morning at ten o'clock at the Warren County Court House—and all interested are invited to be on hand and be heard!

Our live-wire Congressman Leon H. Gavin, of Oil City, has every reason to be elated over the action of a Senate committee which has recommended appropriation of $1,400,000 to continue preliminary work on the Kinzua Reservoir. In a telephone conversation Mr. Gavin said "I am most gratified and what is more, it substantiates my contentions about the importance of the project!"

WORLD TODAY

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—Christian A. Herter, a very frank man, his feelings as he returns to Geneva for talks with the Soviets, he says, might be unfit to print.

Premier Nikita Khrushchev, who prides himself on being brutally blunt, never outdid that one.

Twice at his news conference Thursday—his first since becoming secretary of state—Herter tried to say he was pessimistic about success in the American-Soviet talks which resume Monday at Geneva.

He didn't actually say he was pessimistic. He just said he wasn't optimistic. Just a short time ago at Geneva he finished six weeks of talks with the Soviets and got nowhere. This next go-round may last weeks, too.

Then one of the 190 newsmen—who crowded into the State Department auditorium to see him perform where his predecessor, John Foster Dulles, had held forth so often—asked him near the end of the 40-minute conference:

"Mr. Secretary, if you could use only one word to describe your feelings as you head back toward Geneva, what would that one word be?"

Herter grinned. Twice he had used lack of optimism as a euphemism for pessimism. He seemed to search his mind an instant for that one word to describe his feelings. Then he said: "It might be unprintable."

That was a directness alien to the mind of Dulles, who died May 24.

The late secretary, a highly successful lawyer, talked like one. He used his great legalistic skill in getting across American viewpoints, stating policy positions and floating trial balloons. He handled his news conference like a stage manager.

But his sentences and his ideas —and this was the lawyer working—were interwoven with qualifications and implications that sometimes had to be dug out like shrapnel from under the skin.

He was a master at leaving the back door open in case he had to retreat.

Yet, unlike the rambling, disconnected, broken sentences and unfinished thoughts of President Eisenhower at a news conference, Dulles' sentences were always, despite twists and turns, grammatically sound and flowing.

So is the sentence structure of Herter, a "proper Bostonian" from Harvard. But Herter is easier to follow. His sentences are shorter, more direct. He has a simplicity Dulles lacked.

Dulles ran the State Department out of his hat. Often he gave an impression of arrogance. Herter, who depends on teamwork, seems a less complicated man of good nature and good will.

He was relaxed Thursday, although crippled by arthritis. He smiled easily, was unpretentious, and it was clear he had done his homework in the three years he has been in the State Department.

The 54-year-old Herter was named under secretary late in 1956. He didn't become secretary until April 22. In between those dates he was completely overshadowed by Dulles and probably thoroughly ignored.

So he had time to learn his job. It showed Thursday when he knew detailed background of American problems in Europe and Asia. Nevertheless, it was a pretty drab news conference.

Herter for the most part—and particularly about his lack of optimism on Geneva—simply was restating what he had said or implied before.

His ease in handling the news-

Here and There

According to an item in the July 12th, 1908, issue of the Warren Evening Mirror, "Teams representing the Warren and Franklin Lodges of the B.P.O. Elks played at Russell Field Monday afternoon and Warren won out by a score of six to one. The visitors put up a good game but failed to produce the goods. Neither team was very heavy with the bat and most of the scores were made upon errors." On the Warren team were listed — Branch, ss; Robertson, 1b; King, 3b; Parshall, c; Lyons, 1b; Port, rf; Allen, cf; Dennison, 2b and Easton, p. The line score shows Warren made one run in the sixth, four in the seventh and another in the eighth. Franklin scored one in the seventh. The summary shows: Two base hits, Branch, Hattenbaugh. Stolen bases, Lyons, Gordon, Nesbitt. Base on balls, off Easton 11, Gordon 10. Umpire, Cross.

Another item in the same column of interest to members of the Antlered Fraternity says: "The Warren Lodge of Elks has delegated Frank Barnhart and Architect E. A. Phillips to visit surrounding cities where Elks' homes have been erected recently with the view of gaining information which will be utilized in planning the new home which Warren Lodge contemplates building at the corner of Fourth avenue and Hickory street." x x x Progress on a Liberty street project was reported in this manner: "The large force of men engaged in excavating and preparing for paving of Liberty street is making the dirt fly. The work of placing the curbstone has been completed on the east side of the street and they are about to commence on the other side. Many wagonloads of gravel have been removed in order to get the right grade!" x x x It was also announced "Workmen are now engaged in laying the walls of the new Woodard theatre. A large number of cement blocks are on the ground and from now on things will be kept moving fast. The contract calls for the completion of the project by September first. The outside walls will be of cement block, with an outside veneering of brick."

Another item in the same column fifty years ago reports: "Contractor Lavery states he is about to complete the foundation for the Soldiers' monument. It is a concrete shaft about 39 feet from gravel top and is constructed in a substantial manner. Before it will be possible to place the monument it will be necessary to fill in the surrounding space at the foundation and this will require about 6,000 loads of gravel and earth. Unless some tall hustling is done the monument will not be erected this year."

No mother would expose her children to injury or death by giving them matches, scissors, knives or playthings, or leave an infant unattended in the bath. Yet many mothers unwittingly expose their children to potential danger by their misuse of disposable ultra-thin plastic bags. The heavier plastic bags used for vegetables and fruits have been widely and safely used to store leftovers in the refrigerator, carry damp articles on a trip, store soiled diapers, and protect books in wet weather. The ultra-thin plastic bags have become popular today as protective covers for freshly cleaned clothing and other merchandise. But, like matches, scissors, kitchen knives, electrical devices and similar useful household items, they should be kept away from children, infants in particular. Mis-using ultra-thin plastic bags as substitute covers for mattresses, playpens, baby carriages and pillows; or leaving ultra-thin plastic bags within reach of infants has had fatal results when an infant's face pressed itself into the pliable film. The American housewife is being warned to curb her natural instinct to save, use again or invent new uses for, the ultra-thin plastic bags that protect clothes fresh from the cleaner. She is being asked to destroy plastic bags when they have served their intended purpose. The ways to do this are to tear or shred the bag with the fingers, tie it in a knot, and throw it away, preferably in a garbage pail that has a cover. Joining the Society of the Plastics Industry in this nationwide plea are the American Academy of Pediatrics; American Academy of General Practice, U. S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare; National Safety Council; National Institute of Drycleaning; and the General Federation of Women's Clubs. These groups are working with the society on a national education program to delineate the proper uses of ultra-thin plastic bags and drive home warnings about improper uses. This information is being carried by newspapers and other media. In addition counter cards, labels and folders have been distributed to neighborhood cleaners and laundries, hospitals, health services and other agencies.

How to Keep Well

SUNLIGHT ERUPTIONS

Some persons are so sensitive to the rays of Old Sol they burn or break out with allergic skin reactions after an exposure of five minutes. Others are bothered along this line only after using certain medicines or applying lotions that contain photosensitizing chemicals or volatile oils. Much depends upon the thinness of the skin, the ability to develop a protective tan, and the chemical alterations that occur in the skin on exposure to sunlight.

A person with a true allergy to the sun usually gets hives, eczema, or dermatitis after each exposure. The lesions sting and itch and are most likely to appear over the cheeks, on the lower lip, back of the neck, hands, on or behind the ears. Now and then blotchy changes in pigmentation are noted.

These individuals wear the widest brimmed hats obtainable, carry the largest umbrellas, wear gloves during the day, and walk on the shady side of the street. Some rely upon screening preparations that filter out ultra-violet light. These products include a variety of salves and lotions containing PABA, methyl anthranilate, titanium, zinc oxide, olive oil, or red petrolatum.

The antimalarial drugs have the same action when taken internally. Plaquenil, for example, lay down a chemical screen under the skin to protect against light.

The role of the photosensitizing agents is becoming better known. For example, when some women use perfume before going out in the sun pigmented spots arise over the areas where the cosmetic was used. Other sensitizers are coal tar ointments and commercial suntan preparations. Excessive contact with green plants and weeds and the volume of limes and other citrus fruits may have the same effect as do the sulfonamides, certain antidiabetic pills, Thorazine and Diuril may have the same effect.

The psoralen tablets make the skin tan so rapidly it does not have time to burn. These psoralen pills are tricky to use and serious side reactions may occur. They cannot be recommended except when a bona fide medical reason exists to justify the risk.

Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics by letter if stamped self-addressed envelope accompanies request.

TOMORROW: Puncture wounds from bites.

BREAD HEADACHE

D. N. writes: Whenever I eat bread or rolls at dinner I wake up the next morning with a headache. Could I be allergic to these products?

REPLY
Yes, as wheat is a relatively common allergen. Stop eating breads and rolls for two weeks and if you awaken every morning without headache, then these foods are likely culprits. But, to be certain, try going back to them to see if you can duplicate your symptoms.

BLOOD PRESSURE EFFECTS

E. E. writes: Do more people with high blood pressure get heart attacks than people with low blood pressure?

REPLY
Yes, The odds are against the person with high blood pressure, especially when it develops before 50 and is associated with obesity or is an inherited tendency.

OLDSTERS' MEALS

H. J. writes: Is there any special diet for a fairly active group of women in their eighties?

REPLY
A normal diet with enough protein to maintain vitality. The caloric intake should not be high enough to encourage obesity.

Business Mirror

By SAM DAWSON

AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP)—The Soviet Union has put her challenge to American business on display at New York's Coliseum. And American business representatives have been giving it careful—if somewhat puzzled—scrutiny.

In consumer goods, the challenge is less than impressive. In scientific fields and in technical machinery Soviet ability is evident.

But the Soviet Exhibition of Achievements in Science, Technology and Culture here leaves two big questions unanswered:

1. How much of any of the products on display can the Soviet Union actually produce, spare and sell abroad?

2. What price competition can it offer American industry?

Few American businessmen who have asked these questions while viewing the exhibits report getting definite answers.

Soviet prices for export apparently will be what political policy dictates.

The exhibits bear no price tags. Inquiry as to what a Soviet worker himself would have to pay for the consumer goods are answered in round terms by the guides. But what the Soviet Union would ask for them in world trade isn't.

Few of the consumer exhibits show any aim at pleasing American tastes. Some of the industrial machinery seems ill-suited to American industrial requirements.

But U.S. observers note that some products seem definitely aimed at other world markets, where until recently American productive skill had an inside track.

Out-rate prices—particularly machinery and machine tools—could put Americans in a bad competitive position, U.S. industrialists have been quick to note.

And tailoring special products to special needs—at special prices, and come-on credit terms—could bring the Soviet Union trade, if she really wants it and goes out for it.

American businessmen questioning Soviet officials at the exhibition say that, for all the display of scientific advancement, the Soviets are still actively shopping here for American technological knowledge. They also figure that this is one of the main objectives of the visit to this country of First Deputy Premier Frol R. Kozlov.

Whatever reservations American observers have about the Soviet exhibits, many believe the Soviet Union could be a trade threat in other markets than this one—with its own peculiar pricing policies.

Missionary Day next Friday will include in its 2:00 p. m. service an offering for the support of Erie Conference missionaries, with $2,500 set as the goal. Rev. Thomas will speak at this service.

Dr. H. Ray Harris, conference director of Stewardship will be in charge of presenting the School of Stewardship theme, "The Mechanics of Planned Giving Programs in the Local Church," Tuesday through Thursday.

The School of Missions, July 13-18, will be directed by Mrs. Harold Lindquist of Erie, Conference WSWWS president and formerly of Youngsville. Guest leader will be Miss Beatrice Van Zandt of Altoona, Branch WSWWS president of the Western Pennsylvania Conference. Study themes will be "Africa" and "The Church's Mission in Town and Country."

A full schedule is planned for Bible Conference Sunday, July 19, beginning with a lakeview service at 7:30 a. m. in charge of Rev. McIntyre. In the 10:45 worship, Dr. Paul Smith will speak and the special Camp Findley offering will be received. This goal has been set at $5,000.

Rev. Thomas will have the 2:00 p. m. Missionary Service; at 4:00, there will be a lakeview baptismal service; and at 8:00, Dr. Smith will be the speaker.

The Camp Findley Bible Conference is operated by the EUB Erie Conference and local area members are urged to make every effort to participate and share in this week's activities.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Evangeline Shaffer, daughter of Mrs. Goldie Gogolose of 1409 Pennsylvania avenue, west, and Howard Shaffer of Sheaksville, to Leonard R. Mahood, son of Mrs. Melvin Maylan, 27 Main street, Clarendon. Miss Shaffer is a 1959 graduate of Warren High School; Mr. Mahood is presently serving with the 82nd Airborne Division at Fort Bragg, N. C. No date has been set for the wedding. (McIntosh Studio.)

Ernest Hook, is pastor. Morning worship is at 11:00, Evening Gospel at 7:30, and a cordial invitation is extended to all, including Phil's many friends and acquaintances.

Some parents apparently think it is cute to have their children call them by their first names. But it certainly sounds better to others to hear a child use the more respectful and conventional "mother" and "dad."

The nice thing about rock and roll records is no one ever knows when they are worn out. EX-10

LOYALTY BIBLE CLASS HAS GUEST SPEAKER
SHEFFIELD — When Loyalty Bible Class met at the church, Tuesday evening, Mrs. Ruth Lindstrom, superintendent of the Lutheran Home for the Aged in Jamestown, N.Y., was guest speaker on the topic "Women of the Church." Hint of Orient in Coed Sleepwear

'Mysterious East' Meets Practical West

BY GAILE DUGAS
NEA Women's Editor

NEW YORK—(NEA)—The Oriental influence in fashion has turned in back-to-school sleepwear for college girls.

But the translation is strictly American. The kimono look and the obi sash are there but they've been given a modern slant and the comfort that college girls demand. And though bonus blossoms may drift over the surface of pajama fabrics, the fabric itself is what the girls like: a no-iron blend of dacron, nylon and cotton.

For the girls who prefer the classics, the sleepcoat has turned up in new versions. This year, it's taken on a pinafore look with appealing val lace trim and delicate pastel coloring.

We show the sleepcoat (left) in pink rayon challis pointed all over yoke and sleeves with miniature flowers.

The Oriental pajama (right) has kimono-style jacket with lotus blossom print. Jacket is bordered with pastel trim, has frog closings and obi sash. Both designs shown here are by Schrank.

The Mature Parent

Get Rid of Word 'Love' And Try a Little Respect

BY MRS. MURIEL LAWRENCE

The late Dr. Lawson G. Lowrey was a leader in child psychiatry and an especially creative human being. One day he said to me: "Writing to parents as you do, why don't you suggest a moratorium on the word 'love'? Fools have stripped it of meaning. But they're not touched the word 'respect'. Why don't you suggest that parents respect kids instead of trying so hard to love them?"

The word "respect" comes from the Latin verb meaning to look at again.

To look again at the untidy mess Eddie has left in the bathroom may be to respect him. Our first look at it will just make us resent him.

It shows us only his destruction of the order we've created; the sudden towel bunched together with his soiled clothes on the floor. It shows us only one meaning in his action: disregard of us.

But with respect's second look we recall that Eddie was afraid of being late to cub scout meeting. In his hasty disregard of us, we now see regard for his friends and for cub scout rules. The second look gives a second meaning to his untidiness so that when he comes home we can say without rancor, "Go upstairs to the bathroom and put your soiled clothes in the hamper."

Respect's second look at a child's objectionable action comes easier if we're used to looking twice at our own.

Just as Eddie's bad two meanings, so has ours. When we snap at a relative who's criticized us for extravagance, we may become frightened at our rudeness. A second look at it will show it to us as something besides rudeness: our belief in our own capacity to judge the usefulness of the new nylon carpet we've bought.

And like our resentment at Eddie, our self-accusation loses its heat so that we can say to the critical relative, "I'm sorry I snapped at you. But I can't let you tell me that I'm incapable of knowing the kind of carpet I need."

Dr. Lowrey was for the second look because, like all psychiatrists, he knew that much of our trouble derives from our failures to see second meanings in the "bad" things we do. He knew that respect for ourselves, like respect for children, is freedom from prejudice; those notions we inherited from other people that told us everything we do is either all good or all bad.

He knew that our inherited prejudice against untidiness condemns it blindly, refusing us the second look we must always take to see reality for ourselves.

Isolation Is Biggest Enemy for Indian Nurse

BY ALICIA HART, NEA Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—You can live the life of a missionary and have fun at the same time. And you don't have to leave the United States to do it.

Margaret Fecisen Knapp of the U.S. Public Health Service cites these as just a few of the advantages of working as a nurse on an Indian reservation. Miss Knapp is the new chief of PHIS's Nursing Service Branch of the Division of Indian Health. She is in charge of 1,800 registered and practical nurses assigned to care for 385,000 reservation Indians. Uncle Sam has reservations in 24 states. Most of them are in the West.

Miss Knapp explains that there are plenty of good jobs available in this field and more will open up when the government completes several new Indian hospitals. Staff nurses in hospitals make a beginning salary of $3,610. Starting pay for public health nurses assigned to isolated regions is $3,970.

Miss Knapp says that working with Indians requires more than just a knowledge of nursing techniques and a pleasant bedside manner. She explains:

"There's an extra intangible something that girls must have to work successfully with Indians. I call it missionary zeal. They have to be patient, too."

Gibma is the scientific and popular form of wrestling in Ireland.

The so-called "cinnamon bear" is only a color variety of the black bear.

Margaret Fecisen Knapp

Girls have discovered that they can paint while working at an Indian hospital," Miss Knapp says. "Nature in a desert country is awe-inspiring. I don't think you can look at it without wishing that you could paint it." But Miss Knapp believes the most enjoyable thing about nursing Indians is the satisfaction of helping needy people.

"There is so much yet to do to improve the health of Indians," she explains. "One gets a tremendous amount of satisfaction in seeing improvements take place."

Before being named to her present job last May, Miss Knapp was in charge of Indian nursing activities in Utah, Arizona, Nevada and California. She served in that capacity for three years.

Miss Knapp was born in Ithaca, N.Y. She received her Bachelor's Degree in nursing from Syracuse University and a Masters Degree from the Yale University School of Public Health. She has held other positions with the Public Health Service in addition to her work with the Indian Division. These jobs include acting chief and assistant chief of public health nursing at the National Cancer Institute in Bethesda, Md. Another was consultant for practical nurse training with the Division of Nursing Resources.

In her spare time she enjoys swimming, gardening and golf. Since taking her new job, however, she finds little time for anything except work. "During my free time," she says, "I used to sit and rock and think. Now I just sit and rock. I'm too tired to do anything else."

Plan Ahead for Vacation Glamour

BY ALICIA HART
NEA Beauty Editor

The summer traveler, bound on vacation or business, has the problem of looking well-groomed in the face of many temperature and climate changes. But, with advance planning, the tourist can look both cool and pretty.

The first thing to do is check on the climate in the spot you're going to visit, then work out your wardrobe accordingly. (And remember, not all countries are as informal as ours. In many, women absolutely must not wear shorts on the street or turn up on the beach in skimpy swimsuits.) It is always better to be simply dressed than overdressed if you're not quite certain about social life in the spot of your choice.

Before you leave, have your hairdresser cut and style your hair in a hairdo that you can set yourself with ease. Generally, a summer hairdo should be both shorter and simpler than your winter styling. When your planning is finished, relax and have a good time.

Summer is the time when the lumps and bumps produced by wearing closed shoes disappear. This is due to the happy fact that most of us take to open sandals, even in the city.

When they're given any consideration at all, feet quickly recover from abuse and smooth out. You can help this process along if you like.

When you go to the beach, walk along the water's edge barefoot. The sand acts like a pumice stone in smoothing out the rough spots. It's both healing and soothing. If you're used to wearing high heels, your legs will ache the next day. But this is neither serious nor important and will go away.

By autumn, your feet should be pretty, pink and free of bumps.

Using a comb or cosmetics belonging to someone else is the equivalent of borrowing a toothbrush. It's the sure way to pick up dandruff or skin trouble.

To avoid the problem entirely, always carry small sizes of your regular cosmetics in your handbag. Equip yourself with both comb and pocket-sized brush.

Carry a clean powder puff or disposable cotton puffs.

And in the final analysis, it's far better to go with a shiny nose until you reach home than it is to use another person's powder puff.

News of Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Here is a capsule report on the new economic setup of the movie industry: This week 9 feature movies are being made for theaters. And 65 television series are being filmed.

There can no longer be any doubt that TV is keeping the movie industry alive. Every major studio is buzzing with TV activity—Warner Brothers alone has 10 series shooting, and no features. The RKO (now Desilu) and Republic (rented by Four Star) lots are now exclusively devoted to TV production.

The major studios were late to jump on the home-screen bandwagon, but they're making up for it now. The TV profits will be enough to keep them in the riskier business of making theatrical films.

Theater business looks good this summer, now that TV is suffering from re-runs. The lack of new TV programming is sending Americans out of their homes to catch the dazzling display of fresh products in the theaters.

The Pat Boone family will be here through the summer, but they aren't ready to become Californians yet. "I'll have to return to New York for the TV show," the singer says. "We've got a brand-new studio there, and ABC still hasn't built a big enough plant to do the show in Hollywood. They're working on it, but they built the executive offices first."

It was nice to see Eddie Cantor squiring his wife and family around to the Las Vegas shows. The Cantors were hard hit by the loss of their eldest daughter, and both parents have been ailing. Eddie looks his usual spry self, but is taking life easy.

Gordon and Sheila MacCrack play the Kansas City Starlight Theater (7,600 capacity) with "Bells Are Ringing" Aug. 3-16. It's the first modern role he has ever sung; his Warner and Rodgers-Hammerstein musicals have all been period pieces.

TODAY'S WOMEN

By DOROTHY ROE
AP Women's Editor

Now that The Associated Press Managing Editors Association has adopted a code of "ten commandments for dealing with women employees," it seems only fair that women employees should reciprocate with a code for dealing with men editors.

In the beginning every newspaperman should bear in mind that even the toughest editors are merely men and that the crustiest exterior may conceal a shy and sensitive heart. Starting with this basic fact, all the rest is easy. The following ten commandments for getting along with men bosses are not official, of course, but they may serve as a basis for discussion when women reporters get together in a smoke-filled room after the paper has been put to bed:

1. Do not let your own prejudice give you an unfair attitude toward your editor. Remember that some men are as smart as women.
2. Never argue with a male

My son Jim contracted bridge while a student at Notre Dame and the "germ" carrier was Prof. J. P. Turley. Mrs. Jacoby and I visited the Turleys while in South Bend for the graduation exercises of our other son Jon and professor "Jack" gave us a small lesson in the elimination play of no-trump.

Jack's two no-trump opening was standard and his jump to the slam was based on his fifth club. The combined hands held 11 top tricks and a successful spade or heart finesse would give him his slam but he made it with all finesses wrong.

He won the opening diamond lead in his own hand and cashed two more diamond tricks. He continued by playing the ace-king and a small club to dummy's queen and West was now void of clubs and diamonds.

Jack next led a spade from dummy and put in the nine. West won with the jack and had to lead either a spade or a heart. It did not matter since either lead gave the professor his twelfth trick.

Senate Committee Votes To Delete House Restriction On Use of Reservoir Fund

The following telegram regarding Senate Appropriations committee action deleting a House restriction in the Public Works appropriation bill against spending $1,400,000 to continue construction of the Allegheny river Reservoir project, was received too late for publication in Thursday's issue:

"I am most pleased to advise that the full Senate Appropriations Committee has voted to delete a House restriction in the Public Works appropriation bill against spending $1,400,000 to continue construction of the Allegheny river reservoir project.

"The bill as passed by the House restricted the expenditure of the appropriation until completion of an engineering study of alternate plans. The Senate appropriations committee in voting to delete the restriction stated that the alternate proposals have been adequately considered and reviewed both by the corps of engineers and independent consultants.

The report states, "the proponents of the Conewango Valley plan deny that their plan provides for the diversion of excess floodwaters into Lake Erie; they claim that it would only be the unwarranted waters. At any rate the alternate plan provides a channel having a capacity of sixty thousand cubic feet per second. The committee is of the opinion that the State of Pennsylvania would officially oppose any plan that provided for the diversion of Allegheny river waters into Lake Erie. Certainly any plan for the diversion of the Allegheny River waters into Lake Erie would come under the cognizance of the International Joint Commission, as well as the states bordering Lake Erie. The committee has received protests from the Conewango Valley Flood Control Association. That association points out that the Conewango watershed is a valuable agricultural area. The one-third of the 190,000 acre watershed is highly productive bottomland and the hills are excellent for livestock production. The association further points out that over the past several years a workplan for the protection and improvement of the valley has been prepared under the provisions of Public Law 566.

"The Allegheny river reservoir, the report further states, was authorized more than twenty years ago. The committee believes that reservoir control in this area is urgently needed to reduce flood damage in the industrial and residential areas of Warren, Oil City, Franklin and downstream areas. It has confidence in the ability and integrity of the corps of engineers who will have the ultimate responsibility of construction of the project. Subsequent to the House action the Supreme Court on June 15 denied the petition for certiorari, which removes the last legal obstacle to the construction of the Allegheny river reservoir.

"After the Senate considers and passes the Public Works Appropriations bill, it will then go to conference between the House and the Senate so that differences between the two versions of the bill can be settled. It is my sincere hope that the House will recognize the wisdom of the action taken by the Senate Appropriations Committee and agree to deleting the restriction so that construction of this much needed flood control dam can proceed."

men is no guarantee he will be a good secretary of state. The proof and the test lie before him: He has 18 months in the job before the Eisenhower administration ends.

So far, he has shown very little sign of forcefulness. But that proves nothing—yet. He's not the type anyway to come in with a roar. He has a choice: Follow Dulles' policy or try to break new ground.

Dulles' policy was frozen and in many ways unimaginative. He just followed the Truman-Acheson policy of stiff-arming the Soviets on all fronts. That worked all right so long as the Soviet Union was comparatively weak.

It isn't now. American policy may have to prove far more flexible to meet the changing times, new situations, and increasing belligerence of the Soviets. Heretofore, it had time yet to show himself or prove himself.

MASSENA, N. Y. (AP)—Reynolds Metals Co. Thursday began production of aluminum at its $8 million dollar St. Lawrence plant, pouring molten metal for testing for use as automobile parts.

When the plant's three units are operating, by the end of the year, they will produce 100,000 tons of aluminum annually and employ approximately 600 workers. About 350 were on the job Thursday.

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The Brown Shoe Co. Thursday announced price increases on some fall shoes averaging about three per cent effective next Monday. It said the rise was caused by a continuing strong leather market.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The National Coal Assn. Thursday estimated bituminous production for the Jan. 1-July 4 period at about 210,650,000 tons compared with 198,133,000 tons a year.

Two major compromise plans now being contemplated would provide:
1. A 1/2-cent increase in the gas tax to bring in an extra 380 million dollars, temporary suspension of the pay-as-you-go requirement, and a two-year stretchout of the program now due for completion in 1972.
2. A one-cent increase in the gas tax worth 560 millions, also with suspension of the pay-as-you-go requirement.

Co-Chairman Scott Himes of the Soap Box Derby Committee stated that, notwithstanding the disappointingly small number of boys registered for this year's classic, the race will be run off as scheduled on Saturday, July 25. He said that an effort is being made to get boys who have raced in previous years to enter their cars this year and concluded his report by announcing that, herring a dramatic upsurge in registrations, his committee would recommend to the Times-Mirror and Dan's Chevrolet-co-sponsors of the project—that the project be dropped next year.

Other committee reports heard by the members included the Hole-in-One project which is chaired by Hugh Higgins. This project will be held at the Driving Range on August 1 and 2.

The administration figure is $1,663,000,000, leaving 207 million dollars in taxes needed to balance Gov. Lawrence's budget. The budget itself will be another topic of discussion by the special committee.

Asked if the conferees were getting bogged down in their differences over these estimates, Johnson said he did not think so. Further talks were scheduled today and Saturday.

Representatives of the Pennsylvania Economy League, the Joint State Government Commission and the Department of Revenue appeared before the group Thursday.

Measure

to breach President Eisenhower's "no new starts" policy in a big way, headed today for a House-Senate conference committee.

The Senate last night followed the recommendations of its appropriations committee in approving a $1,256,336,300 program for flood control, navigation and reclamation projects and the operations of the Tennessee Valley Authority and other government power marketing agencies.

The Senate Bill exceeds Eisenhower's budget recommendation by $50,159,500. The House had adhered closely to the budget figure, largely by under financing an expanded program in anticipation of delays in project construction due to weather and other factors.

The appropriations by projects as approved by the Senate committee (House-voted amounts are shown in parentheses if different) include:

New Jersey: Construction—Delaware River, Philadelphia to Trenton, $12,500,000.

Pennsylvania: Construction—Allentown $580,000; Bear Creek Reservoir $3,400,000; Bethlehem $300,000; Bradford $2,400,000; Brookville $500,000; Dam 8, Monongahela River $725,000; Duberry Reservoir $390,000; Kettle Creek Reservoir $1,900,000; Prompion Reservoir $1,120,000; Shenango River Reservoir $500,000; Stillwater Reservoir $1,500,000.

Planning—Curwensville Reservoir $200,000; Maxwell locks and dam $35,000; Ridgway $25,000; St. Marys $38,000; Tyrone $55,000; Washington, Chertsey Creek $78,000; Turtle Creek $25,000 (none).

Pre-Dawn Robber Hits North Warren Confectionery

An early morning burglar at North Warren walked off with the cash—and the cash register. Sheriff Larry E. Linder and chief Deputy Donnell Allen, investigated a break-in at Fladry's Confectionery at 18 South State street today and found the till gone along with $20.

Proprietors Freeman and Martha Fladry told Sheriff's Department they were in the store until 2:10 a. m. today. The robbery was discovered when the establishment was opened at 8:20 a. m. this morning.

Entry was gained through an unlocked bathroom window in rear of the store. The culprit walked out of the rest room, through another room and into the office, where he rifled a desk, stealing $5.

The pre-dawn robber then went into the store, picked up the locked cash register with $15 and walked out the front door.

Deputy Allen said some fingerprints were lifted from the scene.

Cash register is worth $300. There was no property damage.

way of knowing just how sick Long is.

Rep. Lloyd Teekell, whom Long vainly supported for Congress last year, visited the governor at the mansion Thursday. Teekell described Long as a very sick man who is growing weaker. But the state legislator emphasized he spoke as a layman. He said professional ethics limited the doctors in their reports to the public on Long's condition.

A. A. Fredericks, the governor's executive secretary, and Dr. Robert Heath of Tulane University, one of the top men on the team of doctors that has been checking the governor, disagreed on Long's condition.

Fredericks said Long was so improved the doctors had left him unattended. Heath denied this and said the doctors were sticking by their statement of Wednesday that Long was showing signs of fatigue.

Union Waits For Industry Labor Settlement Offer

By NORMAN WALKER
NEW YORK (AP)—The Steelworkers union waited expectantly today for an industry labor contract settlement offer. But there was no sign that steel firms intended to budge.

With an industrywide walk-out threatened at midnight Tuesday, substantial progress must be made before Sunday if costly preparations for banking furnaces and tapering off steel production are to be avoided.

Executives of the industry's top dozen steel companies huddled to decide whether to make a last-ditch wage offer to avert a walkout.

Apparently there was divided opinion. There was no announced decision. New York newspapers said the industry chiefs reportedly decided to stick to their advocacy of a one-year wage freeze.

The Steelworkers union, headed by President David J. McDonald, indicated this meant a sure strike. The union, which granted a two-week strike truce from July 1 to next Tuesday midnight, rejected a bid Wednesday by President Eisenhower to put off a strike indefinitely.

Couple in Far East Asks Help Naming Next Baby

TOKYO (U)—Thousands of Americans in the Far East are being asked to help a U. S. Army couple name their seventh child.

It's not as easy as it sounds. Names of the first six children rhyme, a 15-year family tradition. Sgt. Jack Lovett, in Korea, and his wife, back home in Texas, would like to keep up.

The seventh child is due after October. Lovett wrote the military newspaper Stars & Stripes saying they had just barely found a rhyming name for the sixth a year ago.

Stars & Stripes asked its readers to send in rhyming names, keeping in mind the new baby may be either a boy or a girl.

Lovett's wife, the former Geraldine Gravette, is lying at 313 Water St., Whitesboro, Tex. With her are Lindsay Fay, Larry Ray, Garry Jay, Glinda Kay, Brinda May and Winda Gay.

Insanity Angle Offered In Butler Murder Trial

BUTLER, Pa. (AP)—The father of 19-year-old Richard Alwine testified Thursday that his son, on trial for murder, threatened to commit suicide rather than enter a mental institution.

Nicholas Alwine upheld the defense's contention that his son was not legally sane at the time a Butler grocer, Frank DeMar, 68, was stabbed to death in his store last Nov. 24. The father said his son was abnormal.

He told the jury his wife and her mother were treated for mental illnesses prior to their deaths. The heads of two mental institutions confirmed this.

German Court Martial Involves Warren Co. G. I.

HEIDELBERG, Germany (U)—Pvt. Donald G. Bruner of Richmond, Calif., was not trained in handling the rifle he allegedly used to kill a fellow soldier, defense witnesses told an army court.

They told the general court martial trying 19-year-old Bruner on murder charges that Bruner was trained in the use of the Army's rifle but not of the carbine.

It was a carbine, the prosecution alleges, Bruner used to kill Pvt. Joseph C. Darling, of Warren, Pa., also 19, while both men were guarding the Karlsruhe ammunition depot from adjacent watch towers March 21.

Bruner's defense counsel Capt. J. Dorsey of Tacoma, Washington, also called on several of Bruner's fellow soldiers to testify that there was lack of discipline at the depot. All witnesses agreed Thursday that girls frequently were seen loitering around the depot.

The prosecution has charged that Bruner shot Darling to settle an argument over a girl both men were said to be interested in.

Dorsey was expected to produce witnesses to prove that "blood was not shed over any girl."

FIGHT CANCER

Immediately after the Revolutionary War, the United States Navy went completely out of existence. Guns, powder and cannon balls were put ashore and most of the naval ships were changed into merchant vessels. Then in 1784, Congress ordered the building of six new frigates. These ships were triumphs of shipbuilding and were, as a class, the world's best men-of-war.

THE MARKETS

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market settled backward in slow trading early today as it took a rest from the vigorous first phase of a summer rise.

Gains and losses of fractions to about a point were scattered through the list. Steels, rubbers, rails and oils were mostly lower. Oils were mixed. Drugs were a bit higher. Coppers were irregular.

The POWER of FAITH

by Howard Brodie

The Faith Americans Live By

In the remote areas of the Ozark mountains, the natural intelligence of many youths would have been lost had not a Presbyterian missionary, with the aid of other churchmen, founded the School of the Ozarks at Point Lookout, Mo., in 1907. Without state or county aid, it grew from one building to 90, through mailed gifts and the faith of leaders who guided it through a threatened foreclosure, destruction by fire and other trials. It has been called "the school that lives on faith."

Students are not admitted if they can afford tuition elsewhere. Those with the highest intelligence, those from the most remote regions, are selected to attend the high school and junior college.

"We believe if we work for what we get, the Lord will take care of the details," says R. M. Good, the school's president emeritus.

Breakfast begins with a religious lesson. Students cook, serve, work in the laundry, weaving room, cannery, power plant. They man their fire department and tend a world famous dairy herd. They have helped in the construction of all buildings. They made the furniture for the new chapel and worked in the school quarry. The first graduate is today a judge. Instead of youth being lost in the hills, leaders have emerged who have taken prominent places in America or returned to better their communities. The faith of the founders has been rewarded.

A FATAL MISTAKE . . . This is the worst possible use a mother could make of a polyethylene garment bag. Though it might protect the mattress on Junior's crib from "accidents," it could well lead to a fatal accident if Junior, left sleeping on his tummy, pressed his face into the bag. See "Here and There" column for more information on plastic bags.

McKean County Patients At State Hospital Entertained

Warren State Hospital's island recreation area beside the Conewango was the scene of a pleasant event, Thursday afternoon, when committees from the McKean County Mental Health Association entertained most of the 200 McKean county residents who are patients in the Hospital. The guest list also included 10 patients who have been "adopted" by McKean county individuals or clubs.

Shortly after noon, at long tables set on the lawn, 138 patients were served with meat loaf, baked beans, potato salad, relishes, orange juice, ice cream and cake. Several Bradford restaurants, grocers, merchants and dairies contributed generously to the menu. The quantities of food provided made the affair a major project such as was the Mercer county party last Christmas time.

Mrs. John C. Urbatis, director of Volunteer Services, through whose department the party was arranged, was assisted by all members of the Recreation Department under Director James H. Hillman, as well as by 20 Psychiatric Technicians, nurses and attendants.

Led by Director of Music Lloyd Van Tassel, the Patients' Jazz Band enlivened the occasion. Prizes were given for volleyball throw, ringer contest, Hoopa-Hoop contest, croquet and

RADIO and TV

By GUNTHER LOWRY
NEW YORK (AP)—If the footwork is fast and the dialing hand hasn't lost its skill, you can find a good assortment of fresh material in the midst of television's rebroadcasts during the next seven days.

Ed Sullivan's show, also Sunday, on CBS features comedians Wayne and Shuster, Gene Gansing, singer Georgia Gibbs and dancer Noel Adam. NBC's Chevy Chase will feature comics Gene Sheldon and Joel Grey plus the regular stars Janet Blair and John Raitt.

Starting from the top of the period, Saturday's most interesting bet is the Perry Presents show on NBC to see, if nothing else, how Gloria de Haven makes out substituting for Teresa Brewer. One might prefer to tune in to ABC's Saturday Jubilee U.S.A. with guitarist Lew Childre and comediennes Minnie Pearl. Paul Butler, Democratic National Committee chairman, will answer questions on "College News Conference" Sunday on ABC, and NBC will televise the Yankee-Red Sox baseball game.

CBS has taken "The Last of the Mohicans" for a special interview with W. Averell Harriman, former New York governor, on his recent Moscow conversations with Soviet Premier Khrushchev. This will be broadcast on CBS-radio that night.

Harriman will be followed immediately by Sen. Stuart Symington on "Face the Nation," which Sportsmen will enjoy ABC's Tour Pro Golf Monday night as Tom Finstervald plays Al Balding. Constant viewers may be a little confused about Monday's new Desilu "Playhouse" show on CBS. This one, a prizefight drama, stars Rory Calhoun. Friday night of the same week, or on NBC Rory Calhoun will fight Dick Tiger in a 10-round middleweight bout from Syracuse. It happens that there are two Rory Calhouns, one an actor, the other a boxer.

Andy Williams' guest Tuesday night on CBS is Japanese singer Moshu Umeki. Wednesday night Imogene Coca turns up as a guest on CBS' "I've Got a Secret." Highlight of the evening may well be CBS' "U.S. Steel Hour" — a new drama called "The Pink Burrow" and starring June Havoc.

James Stewart may be seen in a new documentary about SAC's bombers on CBS' "Sunset Playhouse" Friday night.

Campbell Finds "If" Big Word In Pro Golfing

By CHARLES WELSH

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Like all the rest of mortal golfers, the professionals make frequent use of that favorite locker room statement which begins: "If only."

For instance Joe Campbell, the husky young man from Anderson, Ind., via Purdue University basketball and golf stardom, who now plays out of Knoxville, Tenn.

Today he owned a course record 65 at the Pittsburgh Field Club and the first round lead in the 60th Western Open championship. What was his locker room comment?

"If only I had holed those putts on 17 and 18 it would have been the best round of my life."

Thirteen golfers bettered par 70, and eight more matched it. Second place went to Dug Ford, of Paradise, Fla., whose blistering 30 on the incoming nine added up to a 66 that equaled the old course mark set by Chick Harbert in 1933 qualifying for the U.S. Open.

One shot further back for the start of today's second round were Arnold Palmer, of Ligonier, Pa., and Mike Souchak, Grossinger, N. Y., along with Huston (Paddy) Laclaire, Birmingham, Ala., and Bert Weaver, Beaumont, Tex.

The field of 127 starters will be cut to the low 70s and ties for Saturday's third round, and to the low 50s and ties for the finale Sunday.

National Qualifiers

Champions who emerge victorious from qualifying races being conducted during next two weekends at speedways spread from upper New England as far south as Virginia will compete in 100-mile national championship stock car race at Trenton speedway July 26. Buffalo Civic Stadium will hold a qualifying test tomorrow.

Champ With Ivy Look Was Once Hairy Rock 'n' Roller

BY HARRY GRAYSON
NEA Sports Editor

NEW YORK (NEA)—Ingemar Johansson was a badly discouraged 19-year-old when he returned to Göteborg from the 1952 Olympic Games after being tossed from the ring for "not trying."

"For Shame, Ingemar" screamed Swedish newspaper headlines. But Edwin Ahlqvist, who was at the ringside in Helsinki, knew young Ingemar was the victim of a bum rap. Ahlqvist, the promoter-publisher, also had seen Johansson in many of his 88 amateur fights of which he lost eight.

Ahlqvist was positive he had something extraordinary in a big kid who affected sideburns and sported a bushy haircut which made him resemble slightly a husky Elvis Presley or Fabian.

"WE'LL START AGAIN as a professional," Eddie Ahlqvist told the lad he developed. "Let's get on with the training. You'll be a champion one day."

Johansson knocked out one Robert Masson in the fourth round in his professional bow in Göteborg in December of that year.

"I didn't dream I'd be the world champion," says Johansson, recalling the darkest days of his life. "Neither did I," says Ahlqvist, "but I did believe he would be the European champion."

AHLQVIST HAD JOHANSSON boxing with pros at 15. "I managed Nils Anderson, who boxed Bruce Woodcock of England and others," he recalls, "and had Ingemar work with him at my training camp 12 miles from Göteborg. Anderson's knees buckled when Ingemar hit him with his right."

At 17, Johansson held the junior and senior amateur championships of Sweden. It was at this stage that Ingemar made an unsuccessful marriage. He is the father of a girl, 9, and a boy, 6.

Ahlqvist recalls Ingemar as a typical sports-minded teen-ager. "Ingemar was born well-dressed," he says. "He was always meticulous about his attire, dressed individualistically, but in his youth had not developed the good taste he now displays. He dressed what we call in Sweden 'jazz.' It was like you call rock and roll."

Johansson now looks like an Ivy leaguer in street clothes, favoring gray flannel suits or blue blazer and slacks, knit ties and pinned-down collars.

INGEMAR, THE GRAMMAR SCHOOL student, disliked books, quit school after the eighth grade, but later was shrewd enough to take private lessons in English and German, realizing that these languages would be helpful in the business career he hoped some day to have. Disliking indoor work, he bucked a pneumatic drill laying cobblestones in the summer, but went inside to work in Ahlqvist's printing plant one winter when the winds blew cruelly off the North Sea.

He is an accomplished skier, a fair golfer, a fly fisherman and a flier who is rule about fast sports cars.

As a youngster, Ingemar Johansson was a promising junior soccer player, but had definite ideas about the important money that could be had only in the prize ring.

Three Tie For First Flight at Conewango

A three-way tie resulted in first flight of Thursday's partridge-eagle contests on links at Conewango Valley Country Club.

Deadlocked were Skip Morine, Pete Juliano and Bob Walsh. Johnny Carter took low gross in the event.

Second flight tourney was grasped by Gaston Hamilton. Low gross honors were taken by Dean Anderson. It was Norm Lundahl in third division and Ray Stein with low gross.

Dr. Francis Ericsson and Howard Lauffenberger were fourth and fifth flight victors, low gross going to Fred Martin, Sr. and Harry Bairy respectively.

Men golfers at CVCC are reminded that they have only until July 19 to play their 18-hole qualifying rounds for annual Conewango tournament.

Hillsdale Favored In Hollywood As $Million Winner

INGLEWOOD, Calif. (AP) — Hoosierland's Hillsdale attempts to race himself into a select hall of fame in Hollywood's $162,100 Gold Cup Handicap Saturday.

Clarence W. Smith's money-winning colt tops a field of nine entered in the mile and one-quarter race.

The experts say Hillsdale should haul down the $100,000 net purse guaranteed to the winner. If he does, Hillsdale will take his place in a list of winners that includes many of the famous horses of the sport.

There was Gallant Man last year, Round Table and Swaps the previous two years. Noor won it in 1950 and Citation in 1951 to become the turf's first million dollar winner.

A triumph would boost Hillsdale's earnings for 1959 to $432,500.

The opposition will come from Alfred G. Vanderbilt's Find, the probable second choice Terrang, Day Court, Amerigo, How Now, Ying and Yang, Whodunit, and Swaps Kin.

Tennis Club Called To Explain Racial Rule

NEW YORK (AP)—Officials of the West Side Tennis Club have been asked to appear July 21 before the city's Commission on Inter-Group Relations to answer questions about the club's reported policy of banning Negroes and Jews.

The hearing is a result of Dr. Ralph J. Bunche's disclosure Wednesday that the fashionable Forest Hills club's president, Wilfred Burglund, had told him neither he nor his son could join the club because they are Negroes.

Sen. Jacob K. Javits (R-N.Y.) said Thursday that he and four other senators had sent a telegram to the U.S. Lawn Tennis Assn. asking that the U.S. tennis championships and the Davis Cup matches be transferred from the West Side club.

There also was a storm of other protests against the club's ban on Dr. Bunche, who is United Nations under secretary for special political affairs and a Nobel Peace Prize winner.

Burglund could not be reached for comment. Victor Denny, president of the tennis association, was attending a meeting of the International Lawn Tennis Federation in Dublin.

matter of FACT

The scent of plants, particularly flowers, is caused by oils, called essential oils. They are the essence which gives the odor. Perfumes and flavors are made from the oils and very large quantities of plants are required to make a small amount of the oil. Nearly 500,000 roses are needed to obtain a pound of rose oil. Some oils can be manufactured from cheap materials so it is no longer necessary to get them from plants.

PROPELLER-DRIVEN TRAIN DESIGNED—A train driven by standard airplane propeller and engine is shown in this artist's sketch. A working model of a three-car, 276-passenger train will be shown at a series of international fairs, starting at Salonika, Greece, in September. Engineered by Curtiss-Wright, the train is aerodynamically propelled by engine at front and rear and so can run equally well in either direction. The reverse-pitch propellers provide all-weather braking. Several railroads are said to be studying the possibility of placing such trains in use within the next two years.

FIRST U.S. FLEET BALLISTIC MISSILE SUB—Shown above is a scale model of the USS George Washington, the Navy's first submarine specifically designed to fire with Polaris missile. The sub's hull, 380 feet long, is a revolutionary design to combine with its nuclear engine. A crew of about 100 men operate the ship which has a surface displacement of 5,400 tons and uses one big propeller. Interior space is roughly twice as large as in conventional submarines. The atomic reactor plant and the missile launching equipment were designed by Westinghouse.

Present from out of town were many from Bradford, Port Allegany, Mt. Caught by Times-Mirror photographer Shattuck were the above, left to right, Mrs. Frank Ray, Bradford; Gordon Reuff, chief of male superintendents; Miss Pauline Jacobus, Kane; Mrs. John Urbaitis, director of volunteer services; Mrs. William Kness, Mt. New Sunglasses Are Tailored or Dressy

Sunglasses with nylon frames get added touch of Limoges ornamentation this summer. These are done in black nylon with ornamentation in white with pink roses.

BY ALICIA HART, NEA Beauty Editor

The day of the heavy frame sunglasses is gone forever. In 1959, frames may look fashionably large but they are light on the face. The reason? It's because they're made of feather-light nylon.

There's something for everybody in sunglasses frames this year. Oversized sunglasses in tortoise or black are eye-stoppers for bright days. For streetwear, there are wrap-around and modified harlequin shapes that can go

Variety of Routine Affairs Before Northern Area Board

Vice President Francis Lewis with the present truck as trade-in. Farmington Township Board was authorized to assign title to a recently-acquired plot of land, on the former Stufflebeam farm, to the State School Building Authority, to be used in construction of additional sewage disposal facilities for Eisenhower High School.

Approval was given the Erickson Insurance Agency, Warren, to write up a stipulated portion of the system's insurance in its own companies and distribute the balance among other accepted agencies.

The committee also reported on work in progress to provide additional classrooms within the auditorium area of Sugar Grove Elementary School; and announced Mr. Luvison and Supervising Principal Everett Landin plan to be in Harrisburg July 21 for a second meeting with officials of the Department of Labor and Industry.

A second portion of the year's statistical report revealed average high school attendance in the last term was 84.7 per cent; of all students in Northern Area schools, 21.4 per cent of elementary students and 21.2 per cent in high school were from Farmington; 37.5 per cent elementary and 38.9 per cent high school, Pine Grove; 41.5 per cent elementary and 44.9 per cent high school, Sugar Grove. Also attending were three not residents of any NA district in elementary schools, 11 non-residents in the high school.

Among other reports received by the board were those of William Goldsmith, principal at Russell grade school; financial accounts in terms of each district's contribution, and official budget figures; Floyd Marsh, for the high school cafeteria, showing receipts have paid all operational costs and about $500 of the deficit for 1957-58.

Floyd Marsh reported for the personnel committee and it was arranged to employ a teacher for one elementary vacancy and to interview applicants in late August for two full time cafeteria positions in the high school.

Reporting on transportation, Charles Peterson showed all contracts for the next three years have been processed, but two of the 16 must still receive state approval. Monday, August 24, was selected for a meeting of all contractors, administrative

Hearing Ordered On Dangerous P. R. R. Crossings

The Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission has ordered a hearing on the Pennsylvania Railroad crossings of route 59 at Sugar Run, Corydon Township and Kinzua Village, Kinzua Township Warren County to be held on Tuesday, July 14, in the Court House, Warren, commencing at 10:00 a. m. Daylight Time. The following notice has been received about the hearing:

Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission vs. The Pennsylvania Railroad Company, Department of Highways of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, County of Warren, Township of Corydon and Township of Kinzua.

Anthony L. Marino, Assistant Counsel, Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission, Harrisburg, will conduct the hearing.

News of the hearing was learned with considerable gratification by officers and members of the board of governors of the Warren County Motor Club which spearheaded campaign that has been under way for years to have the two dangerous crossings protected.

The crossings have been scenes of numerous accidents, many of them fatal, during the past twenty or thirty years, especially since the advent of motor transportation.

It is expected arguments will be submitted to emphasize the importance of blinker lights or other protection until such times as they may be eliminated through the construction of the Kinzua dam.

Area Collectors Awaiting August 27th When the New Oil Stamp Will Go On Sale

Titusville Herald: More than 1,000 residents of Titusville are stamp collectors who will have their big day on Aug. 27 when commemorative stamp goes on first day sale here.

Postmaster L. Pearle Seep yesterday made this estimate of the number of local stamp collectors on the basis of recent Post Office Department studies which show more than 10 per cent of Americans are stamp collectors.

This means there are more stamp collectors than dog owners in the nation, and stamp collecting is easily the number one American hobby, the local postmaster pointed out.

The large number of collectors are responsible for a large part of the yearly sales of over 2 million stamps at the post-office here.

Postmaster Seep commented that she has many inquiries from people in this community on how to start a stamp collection, particularly of unused (mint) American postage stamps.

Many queries come from parents seeking a wholesome hobby for their children. Also, in recent years, there have been increasing numbers of queries from people who are retired, or about to retire, and who would like to start an interesting and sometimes profitable hobby.

As a note especially to those interested in looking into stamp collecting as a hobby, Mrs. Seep listed these interesting facts about stamps:

1. The Post Office Department issues about 12 to 15 different stamps annually of the "commemorative" type, which are stamps issued especially to mark significant national events, anniversaries, achievements, and the like.

2. The first U.S. postage stamps were issued in 1847, and the first commemorative stamps were issued at the 1893 Chicago World's Fair. Since 1893 nearly every important event in which the government has participated has been marked by one of these unusual stamps which mirror much of the nation's progress and history.

3. Commemorative stamps are issued in limited quantities (120 million is the average now) and they remain on sale for only a short period of time, usually six months to a year.

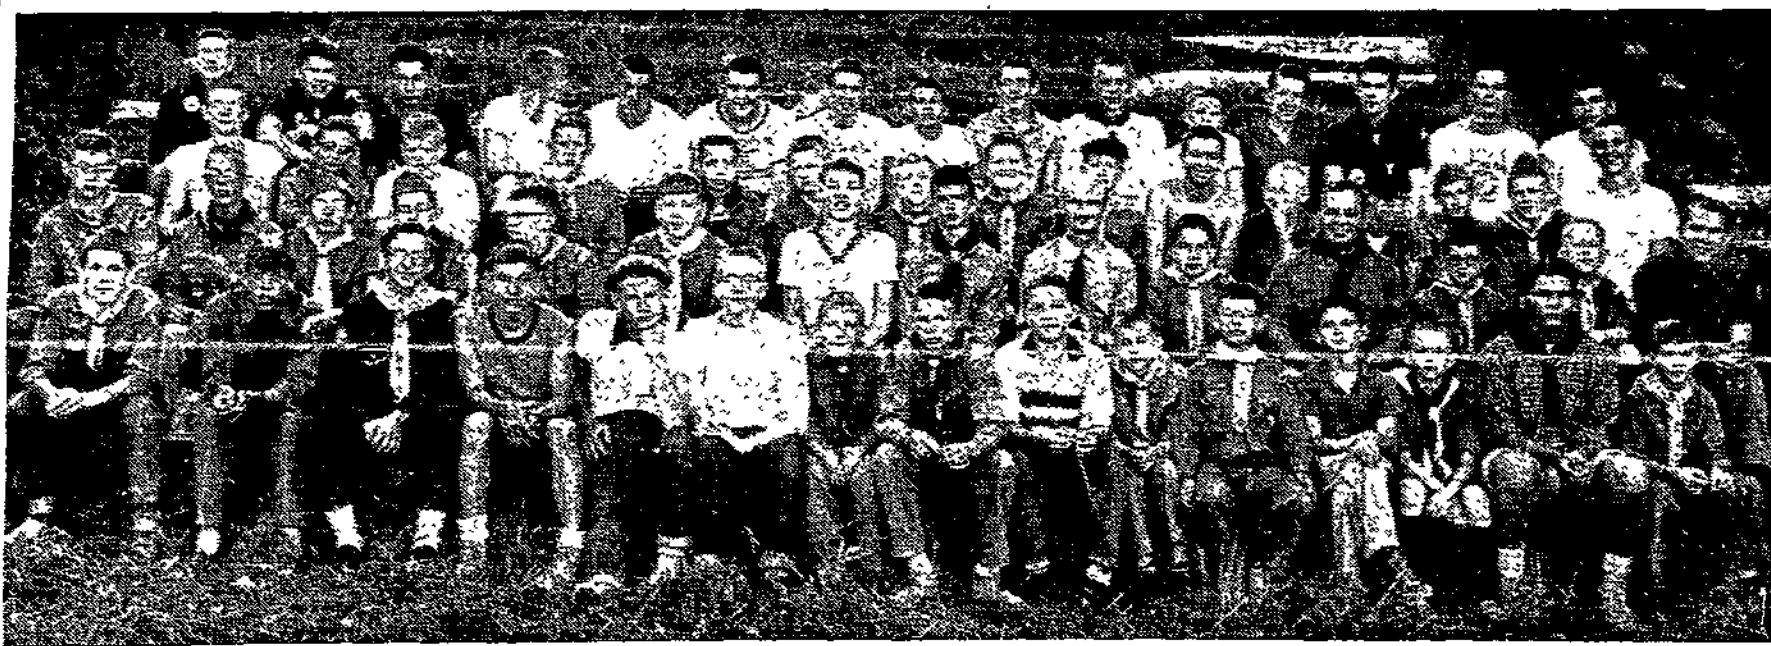

4. New stamps are available at the regular stamp windows locally one day after their first day sale in any other city (except, of course, in the case of the pending new stamp which will be sold here on the first day).

5. Many already-issued commemorative stamps are in stock at the local postoffice and these may be purchased by anyone for use as birthday gifts for collectors, filling in one's personal collection of stamps, and so forth.

Because most collectors keep the stamps they buy, and these stamps are never used for postage, the maintenance of philatelic programs by the Post Office Department costs the taxpayers nothing, the local postmaster explained.

For example, in 1957, the cost of printing 15 new commemorative stamps was $650,000 and at first day sale ceremonies alone, the post office sold stamps worth $658,647. Also, the Philatelic Sales Agency in Washington, D.C., sold thousands of dollars worth of stamps to stamp collectors.

In addition, millions of these commemorative stamps which were sold normally in thousands of postoffices over the country, following their first day sales, also went into collections, providing even more profit for the government.

Special Red Cross Appeal For Donors Wed., July 15

In connection with announcement that donors are desperately needed for the coming visit of the Buffalo Red Cross Chapter officials ask that residents of surrounding communities of the county, as well as those of Warren Borough, will please turn out.

Despite the constantly repeated pleas for more donors and publicity concerning the great need for blood supplies, many persons still do not realize the community-wide importance of this phase of the Red Cross program and its possible application to the individual.

Referring to the annual report of Howard Lauffenburger, Blood Program chairman for the local chapter, his statistics show 1,259 pints of blood distributed in the past year; also 38 pints of serum albumin used at the institution, and approximately 30 "live" donors sent there by the chapter in response to special calls.

When it is understood that total donors presenting themselves for collections during the entire year were 1,665 and total pints collected were 1,490, the balance is practically negligible.

From this small balance, 325

pints were returned to the regional blood bank in Buffalo; and 22 Warren county residents received 77 pints of blood under the reciprocity program with county and out of state hospitals.

Warren County Red Cross Chapter pays $6,000 annually to make possible this program of free blood supplies for area residents. Some chapters, it is pointed out, charge for collection of blood because of their difficulty in raising a annual funds sufficient for their budget, although there is never any charge made to any individual for blood supplies.

With hospital charges of anywhere from $25 to $35 for administration of the supply, depending upon the area, it is readily seen that Warren County Chapter has saved its residents a minimum of more than $31,000 in the past year.

With these figures in mind and the admonition that "you or some member of your family may need the next pint of blood," Red Cross workers again ask that every individual who can possibly do so will call Chapter Headquarters, RA 3-6000, and register as a donor for next Wednesday, July 15.

The Buffalo equipment will set up at Headquarters from 10:00 a.m. to 3:45 p.m., and any person finding out at the last minute it is possible for them to report will be welcomed as drop-ins. Waiting periods are kept at a minimum and every donor will be greeted gratefully.

Community Chest Budget Committee Names Chairman

Howard Lauffenburger, above, has been appointed chairman of the Budget Committee of the Warren Community Chest. Other members of his Committee consist of the following: Holgar Elmquist, Merle Kremer, Charles Tranter and Samuel Hoffman, ex-officio.

This Committee gives considerable time and thought to the individual budget requests of the agencies and makes recommendations accordingly to the Chest Board. The Board in turn, sets the goal for the Annual Solicitation to be held in October.

A schedule of Hearings will start on Monday July 13th when each agency will appear before the Budget Committee with their proposed budget. This schedule will be announced at a later date.

Twin Lakes May Be on Way To Attendance Mark

Kane Republican: Twin Lakes Recreational Area seven miles south of Kane in the Allegheny National Forest can well be on its way to a new record for visitors on the basis of early season reports and continued cooperation of the weatherman. Dr. C. A. (Brick) Peterson, administrator, reported that surveys have shown that July 4th, with 6,000 visitors, was the biggest "Fourth" on record—but not the biggest day's attendance.

On the basis of reports thus far, attendance this season up to this time has already reached or exceeded total seasonal attendance of the rainy - out seasons in the past few years.

Dr. Peterson, with an experienced staff and assisted by Laverne Johnson of the Kane Area Joint Junior High School faculty, has the area in excellent condition with facilities expanded and improved each year on a basis of funds available through the small admission fees that are charged. A percentage of all funds taken in returns to the Twin Lakes for improvements and, through careful efficient administration, are area has been making steady progress.

The invigorating water for swimming and the spacious natural forested area as a scenic setting prove lures to persons from many states as well as from the local area. At least 10 states were represented in the July 4th visiting crowd. A total of 42 family camping groups have used or are using the area facilities. On Sunday, a church service was conducted for the camper group by the Rev. H. D. Land, Jr., of Springfield, Va.

Dr. Peterson, a Wilcox resident and head of the Physical Education Department at the University of Pittsburgh, and his assistant have been credited with an outstanding job of administration and operation of the area which has been largely responsible for the popularity of the Allegheny National Forest play spot.

Around the Area With The County Agent!

By Bernie Wingert, Warren County Agricultural Agent

On Wednesday I traveled with a group of county folks to Chautauqua County, New York to make arrangements for the Annual Warren County Auto Tour which will be held on August 3rd this year.

Every year for many years back a part of the Agricultural Extension program has been a tour to see how the "other fellow" is doing it. And these farm tours have been alternated—one year touring within our own county, the following year to surrounding counties. This happens to be the year to go outside our county and the tour committee suggested Chautauqua County.

Several weeks ago I stopped in the County Agent's office in Jamestown to see if they could suggest places of interest for our visit. Roger Kramer, County Agent for about the last 25 years, swiveled around in his chair and made the first suggestion. (By the way, it may interest you to know that Roger's desk is even piled higher and deeper than mine.) His idea was to have Glenn Kline, Associate Agent, arrange a day to take our tour committee around to see some of the county farms. And so that's how John Nordin, Scandia, Bob Scott, Lottsville, Mrs. Don Ludwick, Sugar Grove, and Mrs. Dale Skinner, Lander and myself spent all day Wednesday.

It's a good tour that has been arranged—there's no question about it. One of the first stops is just two miles north of Jamestown at the Rodney Sharp farm. Mr. Sharp is a purebred Holstein breeder and has done quite a good job of remodeling an old barn into a modern, easy to work in, dairy barn. Further on at the Marvin Bly farm, homemakers will have a chance to visit the recently remodeled farm home while the men look over a new system for drying hay. Mr. Bly dries his hay on wagons. He and his son operate a 60 cow herd, all purebred Holsteins.

At noon the visiting tourists will eat a picnic lunch at the Stockton picnic grounds and then visit two farms in the northern part of the county. The first is a father-son operation of about 50 purebred Guernseys, and here the ladies will have the opportunity to go through a brand new farm home.

The last stop for the day will be at the 90 cow barn of Donald Crowell and he will operate his pipe line milking system. With this method of milking, the milk goes directly from the cow through stainless steel pipes to the bulk cooling tank.

Certainly this tour can be enjoyed not only by Warren County farmers, but by our town residents as well. We welcome everyone to join the auto tour, leaving from the Courthouse Annex on August 3rd.
